D. MIGRATORY BIRD IMPORT/EXPORT (Migratory Bird Treaty Act, 50 CFR 21.21)

Note: A Migratory Bird Import/Export permit is required to import or export migratory birds into or out of the United States. (If the migratory bird you propose to import or export is also protected under the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species, the U.S. Endangered Species Act, or the Wild Bird Conservation Act, you may require import or export authorization under those laws.) All wildlife shipments must enter and exit the United States through a wildlife port designated in 50 CFR 14.12 unless a port exception is authorized on your permit or you have a separate exception to designated port permit issued under 50 CFR part 14.

Please provide the following information on a separate sheet of paper:

1. Are you requesting an import permit or an export permit?
2. For each migratory bird you propose to import or export, provide:
 - (a) The scientific name (genus, species, and, if applicable, subspecies), common name, and quantity of each species.
 - (b) Whether the birds are live, dead, parts, nests, or eggs.
 - (c) Whether the birds are captive bred or wild caught.
 - (d) The country in which captive bred or wild caught.
 - (e) Band numbers, if applicable.
3. Explain the purpose of the importation or exportation.
4. If you are requesting an Import Permit:
 - (a) Provide the name and address of the person or organization in the foreign country from whom you are importing.
 - (b) Specify your Federal and State permit numbers or other authorization to lawfully acquire and possess the birds upon their arrival in the United States.
5. If you are requesting an Export Permit:
 - (a) Provide the name and address of the person or organization in the foreign country to whom you are exporting.
 - (b) Specify the Federal and State permit numbers or other authorization under which the birds were taken and held in the United States.
6. Provide the approximate date of shipment and the intended U.S. port of entry or exit. If you need to import or export through a port other than a wildlife port designated in 50 CFR 14.12, we may be able to authorize an exception on your permit. Please specify your preferred port and briefly state the reason the exception is needed.
7. Anyone who will be assisting you or acting as your agent to conduct the import/export must either have their own Federal migratory bird import/export permit or be listed on your permit as a subpermittee. Please provide the name and address of anyone who will be transporting, importing, or exporting birds as a subpermittee.
8. You must retain records relating to the permitted activity for at least 5 years from the date the activity is conducted. Where (at what address) will records relating to the import/export will be kept?

PERMIT APPLICATION FORM INSTRUCTIONS

The following instructions pertain to the standard License/Permit Form 3-200 that must be completed as an application for a U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service permit. Please read the General Permit Procedures (50 CFR 13) sent with this package.

- * Complete all appropriate blocks/lines. Print clearly or type in the information. A complete application prevents delays!
- * Sign the application in ink and send an original to the address on the top of the application. Faxed copies will not be accepted.
- * Applications will be processed in the order they are received.

Most of the application form is self-explanatory, but the following provides some further assistance for completing the form.

COMPLETE EITHER BLOCK A OR BLOCK B:

- Block A. "Complete if applying as an individual" - Enter the complete name of the responsible party who will be the permittee if a permit is issued. Enter personal information that identifies the applicant. All blocks must be completed. If you are applying on behalf of a client, the personal information must pertain to the client. A notarized document stating power of attorney must be included with the application.
- Block B. "Complete if applying as a business, corporation, public agency or institution" - Enter the complete name and address of the business, agency or institution who will be the permittee if a permit is issued. Give a brief description of the type of business the applicant is engaged in, the name and phone number of the person in charge, and if the company is incorporated, the state in which it was incorporated.

ALL APPLICANTS COMPLETE BLOCK C:

- Block C.1 "Do you currently have or have you had any Federal Fish and Wildlife license or permit?" - List the number of any FWS or CITES permits. If applying for a renewal, the original permit must be returned with this application.
- Block C.2 "Have you obtained any required state or foreign government approval to conduct the activity you propose?" - If the proposed activity is regulated, check the appropriate box. If "yes", list the State or foreign countries involved and type of document required. Include a copy of these documents with the application. If "no" indicate what steps you have taken to secure approval (use attachment if necessary). If the proposed activity is not regulated check "not required".
- Block C.3 "Attachments" - Consult the fact sheet or regulation. Provide any required additional information outlined on the supplemental page(s) (Section D) of the application form. Be as complete and descriptive as possible. If there is any doubt as to the information's relevance, include it with the application. An incomplete or unclear application may cause delays in processing.
- Block C.4 "Check or money order (if applicable)" - There is a permit processing fee unless you are fee exempt. Consult the enclosed APPLICATION PROCESSING FEE information. Make the check or money order payable to the "U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service" and attach it to the application form. If you are fee exempt, write "exempt" in this space.
- Block C.5 "CERTIFICATION" - The individual applicant in Block A, the person named in Block B, or a person with power of attorney must sign and date the application in ink. This signature binds that person to the statement of certification. This means that you certify that you read and understood the regulations that apply to the permit. You also certify that everything included in the application is true to the best of your knowledge. Be sure to read the statement and re-read the application before signing.

Paperwork Reduction Act and the Privacy Act - Notices

In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.) and the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), please be advised that:

1. The gathering of information on fish and wildlife is authorized by:
 - (a) Bald Eagle Protection Act (16 U.S.C. 668);
 - (b) Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1539);
 - (c) Migratory Bird Treaty Act (16 U.S.C. 703-711);
 - (d) Marine Mammal Protection Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1371-1383);
 - (e) Wild Bird Conservation Act (16 U.S.C. 4901-4916);
 - (f) Lacey Act (18 U.S.C. 42 & 44);
 - (g) Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Flora and Fauna (TIAS 8249);
 - (h) Title 50, Part 10, of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (i) Title 50, Part 13, of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (j) Title 50, Part 14, of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (k) Title 50, Part 15, of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (l) Title 50, Part 16, of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (m) Title 50, Part 17, of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (n) Title 50, Part 18, of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (o) Title 50, Part 21, of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (p) Title 50, Part 22, of the Code of Federal Regulations; and
 - (q) Title 50, Part 23, of the Code of Federal Regulations.
2. Information requested in this form is purely voluntary. However, submission of requested information is required in order to process applications for licenses or permits authorized under the above acts. Failure to provide all requested information may be sufficient cause for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to deny a permit. Response is not required unless a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number is displayed.
3. Certain applications for permits authorized under the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1539) and the Marine Mammal Protection Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1371-1383) will be published in the Federal Register as required by the two acts.
4. Routine use disclosures may also be made:
 - (a) To the U.S. Department of Justice when related to litigation or anticipated litigation;
 - (b) Of information indicating a violation or potential violation of a statute, regulation, rule, order or license to appropriate Federal, State, local or foreign agencies responsible for investigation or prosecuting the violation or for enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulations, order or license;
 - (c) From the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from a Congressional office made at the request of that individual (42 FR 1903; April 11, 1977);
 - (d) To subject matter experts, and State and other Federal agencies, for the sole purpose of obtaining advice relevant to issuance of the permit.
5. For individuals, personal information such as home address and telephone number, financial data, and personal identifiers (social security number, birth date, etc.) will be removed prior to any release of the application.
6. The public burden for this information collection varies depending on the activity for which a permit is requested. The relevant burden for migratory bird Import/Export applications is 1 hour. This burden estimate includes time for reviewing instructions, gathering and maintaining data and completing and reviewing the form. You may direct comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the form to the Service Information Clearance Officer, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Mail Stop 222, Arlington Square, U.S. Department of the Interior, 1849 C Street, NW, Washington D.C. 20240.

Freedom of Information Act - Notice

For organizations, businesses, or individuals operating as a business (i.e., permittees not covered by the Privacy Act), we request that you identify any information that should be considered privileged and confidential business information to allow the Service to meet its responsibilities under FOIA. Confidential business information must be clearly marked "Business Confidential" at the top of the letter or page and each succeeding page and must be accompanied by a non-confidential summary of the confidential information. The non-confidential summary and remaining documents may be made available to the public under FOIA [43 CFR 2.13(c)(4), 43 CFR 2.15(d)(1)(i)].

APPLICATION PROCESSING FEE

The fee to process a migratory bird permit application is $25.00. Checks should be made payable to "U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service." The fee applies to new permit applications and renewals. The processing fee will not be refunded if the permit is issued or denied, or if the application is abandoned.

The fee schedule does not apply to any Federal, State, or local government agency or individual or institution under contract to such agency for the proposed activities. There is no fee for eagle permits issued under 50 CFR 22. Until further notice, the fee will be waived for migratory bird rehabilitation permits and for permits for public institutions. As defined in 50 CFR 10.12 - "Public as used in referring to museums, zoological parks, and scientific or educational institutions, refers to such as are open to the general public and are either established, maintained, and operated as a governmental service or are privately endowed and organized but not operated for profit."
